The World's Aircraft A-Z

Fia O Caoimh

Publication Date: 18 July 2011

Price: £16.95

Reduced Format

In an incredible combination of personal passion and exhaustive research, Fia O Caoimh presents a visual encyclopaedia of aircraft, with special emphasis on obscure or forgotten planes.

His exquisite illustrations of planes and helicopters, each accompanied by detailed technical specifications including information on where they can now be seen, re-create the progression of aircraft, beginning with the early days of flight.

A beautifully illustrated timeline depicts man's attempts to fly, from antiquity's myths and legends to ventures into space in our own time.

More than ten years in the making, and with more than 900 illustrations, this unique, engrossing and heartfelt labour of love is certain to resonate with professionals and amateurs alike.

'Extraordinary ... the ultimate book for anyone interested in airplanes'
– The Irish Independent

'A must have for any aeroplane buff' – The Sunday Business Post

Aviation features nearly 400 aircraft types, including the Bücker Bü-133 'Jungmeister', aerobatic champion of Europe from 1933; the Piaggio P.180 'Avanti', now associated with the great Ferrari racing marque; the Japanese seaplane Shin Meiwa US-1, able to carry out rescue in 15 ft-high waves; and the legendary Ryan B1-Brougham, 'Spirit of St. Louis', first to cross the Atlantic east to west.

Author

Fia O Caoimh is an Irish artist, architect and pilot, flying from his Waterford Airport base. He constructed his own high performance Rutan Long-Ez aircraft.
